Sorry these playlists are still running a little late. Things are busy as usual at the WFMU sanatorium. We've just put out a new (smallish) issue of our program guide, Lowest Common Denominator (LCD)—if you'd like a copy, just lemme know. Our border dispute (now in it's fourth year) has been heating up (so far, it's been all good news for us!) The F.C.C. has cut 2 of our 4 opponents out of the skirmish, and has acknowledged that keeping FMU intact is in the public interest. HOWEVER...the battle is far from over and there is still a good chance of an (expensive) hearing with the other 2 stations regarding the technical solution to our 30-year signal overlap. To raise more dough, I'm currently cooking up the soon (it better be) to be released WFMU 1993 Calendar. This cherished keepsake will keep you up to date on memorable and forgettable events for every day of the year—musical disasters, birth and death dates of the acclaimed and the notorious, assassinations and more. Artwork will be by Drew Friedman, Cindy Sherman, Stephen Kroninger, Kaz, Michael Hurley, Jad Fair, Georgia Hubley, Bill Graef, Steve Cerio, Rebecca Odes, Brian Edwards, and a rare (1966) live photo of the Monks! All yours for a tax-deductible $25 contribution (make checks payable to "Friends of WFMU"). And for you cheapskates here's a contest: The first person to correctly answer the following 8 questions will win a free calendar (entries must be on postcards—no phone calls!). From the above list of calendar artists 1) which artist has done 2 covers for Time magazine? 2) which has had an exhibit of his/her work at the Museum of Modern Art? 3) which one has been sued by Joe Franklin? 4) which one has recorded an album for Folkways? 5, 6, 7) which play in the bands 5) Yo La Tengo 6) Love Child 7) Railroad Jerk and 8) which one has had a song written about them by Frances Gumm? Bonus question: a free calendar to the first person who can tell me who Frances Gumm was. WFMU employees and their families are ineligible. No purchase necessary. Void where prohibited. Have a nice month....David Newgarden, music director
