MUSH FROM THE WIMP

All self-deprecation aside, the WFMU Benefit Record Fair was a success on all counts. We raised a well-needed (and already spent) $14,000, facilitated many successful matings of consumer and musical product (as just one random testimonial, I acquired five Gene Pitney records), and plied our attendees with oceans of beer (thereby relaxing the brain's record-buying cortex). We made almost $800 alone picking up loose change deposited on the dance floor by revelers shaking it to our live dj's! Thanks to all who attended.

I was going to use this space for my oft-threatened profile of WFMU's music department assistant, the 15-year-old Wunderkind Nick Marantz, but I'll spare him the embarrassment this month. Suffice to say that we skirt child labor laws with our demands on his tender, unformed cranium, and that he is definitely up to the task.

Watch this space for more interesting WFMU news (can't let the cat out of the bag quite yet). Until then...

Yours Till The Kitchen Sinks,

Gaylord
