Gaylord Flies Coop; Robin Alights

As previously threatened, you won't have Gaylord Fields to kick around anymore. The "interim" is now over and I've relinquished the Music Director scepter, tiara and faux-ermine-trimmed robe to the Twin City Titan herself, Robin Edgerton, who, as I write this, is currently undergoing the requisite toxicity acclimation procedures (a requirement for all new New Jersey residents).

Let me just allow Robin to break in here to say hello to you. (Her typeface is Arial, by the way, mine is New Times Roman.)

hi. I'm sick. be nice to me when you call me, for now, anyway. And I'll be nice to you, too, until I get the hang of things around here. I'll elaborate in future playlists, and you CAN expect a change from the pathetic current playlist letterhead/border... however, I'm determined to keep the quality of music nestled within it at least equivalent...

Yeah, whatever. Anyways, Robin will be keeping the same music-call hours that I did, at least for the time being. (And unlike the last two veggie MD's, she's omnivorous when she wants to be.)

As for my immediate future, I'll be working on various WFMU projects (such as the new edition of our mail-order catalog) till mid-October, so I'll be around these parts for a while. And I'll continue my radio show here, of course. If you want to keep in touch with me, write to me c/o this station. (Just be sure to write "PERSONAL" on any correspondence so Robin knows to keep her mitts off it.)

I would like to thank all the new friends I've met during my tenure here. But how do you thank someone who has taken you from crayons to perfume, as Lulu might ask? It's been great fun doing the job, and I've even learned a few lasting life lessons. Well, lest this missive get tear-stained, I'll sign off now.

Goodbye,

Gaylord Fields,
a radio friend
