Thanks so much to all of you kinds folks who have helped out WFMU during our 1997 Marathon fundraiser, which just wound down March 16 after two weeks. We achieved our highest pledge total to date, a whopping $294,000, with about 350 folks pledging $300 each towards our House of Tomorrow fund. To all the labels who pitched in prizes, and anyone who contributed in any form whatsoever, our deepest gratitude. We especially have to thank Bob and all the Triage folks who donated an entire day's work to WFMU by coming out to East Orange and helping with phones and data entry. It was a pretty spectacular and eventful two weeks to say the least.

The wheels are truly rolling towards our new home, as well. We're in contract to buy a building in downtown Jersey City, on Montgomery Street only a stone's throw away from the Exchange Place PATH. Yes, indeed, WFMU will hopefully soon be located exactly one mile from Manhattan, and while (for now), a transmitter move is not in the works, our newfound proximity will enable us to 1.) escape our tenuous-at-best occupation of the abandoned Upsala campus in East Orange, 2.) allow easier access to WFMU for many of our volunteers and future volunteers, not to mention live performers on our airwaves and 3.) give the station a true base to continue its growth. WFMU is still, incidentally, completely independent and listener-sponsored and will continue to be throughout our transition, and well into the future.

Other exciting news is that WFMU is continuing to expand its listener base in the outer regions of NYC. We've been broadcasting our signal on 90.1 FM for some months now in the lower Hudson Valley, Catskills, Western Jersey and Eastern Pennsylvania; the Marathon pledges we received represented those areas quite well, no small feat considering we've only been broadcasting a short time. Soon, WFMU's signal will be on the worldwide web via Audionet, enabling folks anywhere to hear our sounds on their computer in real time. We'll keep you posted on all of these developments, or feel free to email me or check out the WFMU website at www.wfmua.org.

LCD #20 is out and may be with some of these playlists. If you didn't get yours, let me know and I'll be glad to send one along! Also, May 3 and 4 brings the next huge WFMU Record Fair at Mary Help of Christians Church in the Lower East Side of Manhattan. Vendor info can be obtained via Rex at (201) 678-8264.

Besides all the crazed activity here, we've actually found time to present quite a bit of live music as well, most notably a post-marathon bash at club Mother on W 14th st. in March attended by about 200 loyal 'FMU listeners who braved the midweek (flurry of transsexual prostitutes that jam the westside block) to get inside the club and witness some fine entertainment courtesy of Jessica Kane, Eletfa, Brian Dewan, R Stevie Moore/Chris Butler, Bingo Gazingo, Carol Lipnick's Spook-a-rama, Will Holshouser Trio, Andy Breckman, and Doug Skinner. Recent live airwave activity: in-the-flesh performances from the Silver Apples, Styrenes, Eletfa, Dots Will Echo, Spring Heel Jack, Dump, Apples in Stereo, Yo La Tengo (who took requests for unrehearsed covers for marathon pledgers), the Lynnfield Pioneers, Run On, Planet Philly (who played during our marathon finale), Gary Lucas, Josephine Wiggs, Ben Lee, and more more more....Don't forget: office hours are Thursdays 12-5 and you can e-mail me at brian@wfmua.org or bt@wfmua.org. Til next time...

Brian
