Hello, again....

Needless to say, WFMU will certainly be on its toes for the new few months with all kinds of activity. The big news is that we'll be putting on a benefit concert for our House of Tomorrow fund with Stereolab, Blonde Redhead and Run On; it's happening at the Westbeth Theater in NYC on Wednesday, November 13th. We're very excited to say the least, and are eternally grateful to all the parties devoting their time and talent. Tickets will be $15 general admission, and are on sale now at See Hear and Adult Crash in Manhattan, and Tunes in Hoboken; you can also get them via WFMU if you call us at (201)-678-8264.

Also, we are drawing nearer to yet another WFMU Holiday Record Fair, which of course, is a veritable feeding frenzy of activity for record hounds from miles around. Stop on by if you're in the neighborhood, it's Saturday and Sunday, December 7th and 8th at Mary Help of Christian Church on E.12th Street between 1st and A in the East Village. I don't know how we can top the Rudy Ray Moore appearance from last time around, but there'll surely be fun for the family.

Recent live stints here in the spacious WFMU studios: Bunnybrains, Alan Vega, Guv'ner, Lazy Boy, the Red Aunts, Fuzzhead, God is My Co-Pilot, Neutral Milk Hotel, the Del McCoury Band, Olivia Tremor Control, and Joe Morris. Thanks to everyone who helped set these shows up, engineered, baked bread. Contact me for any info you need on the music front; my office hours are Thursday 12-5 pm, phone is (201)-678-8751.

Brain Turner.
