Invasion of the Talk Show Snatchers

by Mike Malloy on September 18, 2006 - 6:42pm.

Hi. Malloy here. It's Monday, September 18, 2006. Well, it's been almost three weeks since we were fired by the really, really strange pod-people who have temporarily taken over Air America. Tonight's program will be hosted by my good friend Peter Werbe. Not sure what he's talking about tonight, but do tune in. If you're wondering how we're writing and posting this mini-blog it's simply because the airheads in Air America's executive suites – the pod-people mentioned above – are too, um, stupid to figure out how to handle their own website access. The door's wide open. So we dashed in just for the hell of it to post this “howdy, how is everyone?”

Frankly, we think the suits are too stupid to stop us so we'll probably do this every day and also post a longer blog inside the site where we used to. Until they figure out what we're doing and stop our fun. Bastards. Just mean ol' right-wing bastard pod-people running our Air America. Well, eventually their bodies will start to react to Earth atmosphere and they'll have to leave. Meantime, Mike and Kathy here saying, stay tuned!

Why are the Pod People abusing us?

I have requested human help from AAR and have never received any despite my premium membership. Perhaps they really are just virtual people since it's impossible to get in touch with any humans other than the ones who take calls during broadcasts.

Obviously, the people running the radio station have been squandering it and its listeners. I hope that the talent who draw us to Air America and to this blog of a favorite talent, will have more management input. It's critical that we make this work for everyone!

In any case, I think Molly Malloy would do a better job of running AAR than the incompetent aliens who now inhabit its executive suites.

How wonderful to hear from you Mike - I was in my normal nightly routine at work, missing your show, your honesty, your knowledge, and your passion, then I came upon your posting - BRILLIANT. Classic - the suits up at AAR haven't figured out anything regarding the actual "functioning" of their site - or station for that matter as they would not have let you go. I just wanted to wish Kathy, little Molly, and you all the best and whisper a little chant for you to return to us truthseekers very soon. Hang in there Mike - we miss you!

It's great to hear from you Mike. I was starting to worry that they had sent you to the Ministry of Truth and Love. The night owls love ya and miss ya something terrible. Can't wait for you to be back on the air.

It never fails that as soon as you win an award the bastards start gunning for you. They flock to success to lay maggots just like flies flock to a turd-blossom. The just can't stand to let the good guys win one for a change.

The Comedy Show that Never Ends

Hi Mike:

Please get a new job soon. This network politics sitcom is too hard to keep track of :). This is the only network in America where the best and (lowest paid host) gets fired while filling in for someone else. He has no chance of saying goodbye to what the suits know is a LARGE audience. Rumors fly everywhere. Said ex-host sneaks back into the building. And now has free access to the ex-employer's site. You CAN'T PAY for this kind of publicity. Mike, spin it to the max.

On the other hand, while the suits aren't too bright, maybe their legal staff is? Mike you realize that you're the ONLY nationally syndicated talk show guy who got fired for telling the truth. I'd really hate to see what looks like a golden opportunity for spin turn into a legal action against you. Just something to remember as you rape, pillage and burn on the site here :).

Genius!

This was simply genius, Mike! I have never been so glad to see a blog entry; just wish I could hear you, too.

Who are these pod people and where did they come from?

The only good news is that Sam is on mid-mornings in place of that Springer character, and Rachel is now on evenings. Those were actually GOOD moves, so why, oh why, did they have to make it all meaningless by canning you? Were the "financial" reasons really that Soros refused to give them more money if you were still on the air?

Have you mentioned yet tonight how much you hate these people? I wish I could hear it...

that they'll see the error of their ways and bring you back. It is my hope that Peter (who's a really good guy) is just the fill-in until they figure out the appropriate grovelling and remuneration package necessary to entice you to forgive them for obviously losing their minds. Hoping to hear you soon!

Exactly like this..right in their faces, right under their stuck up noses! We're right here Mike & Kathy and we're not going away. So wherever you land eventually, we'll be there too. Keep us posted here, or at your site..looking forward to the real story about your show snatching.

Btw, have you thought about releasing a CD of your reading of 1984? I was mesmerized by it... you had the perfect voice for it. And with that bell chiming periodically..it had a real vibe.

Miss you lots and everything you brought, but I also miss Kathy's deliciously wicked sense of humor. Oh, she could come up with 'em! When Ms. Molly grows up...she's gonna be one wonderfully dangerous synthesis of the two of you! Watch her back would ya?

It's one thing to revile the President, the good Christian people of America, the Honorable Senators So-and-so, revile them in language that curls even my hair sometimes. That's not enough to get you fired.

But put Alex Jones on and let him reel off his high precision litany of evidence that proves that what the above victims of slander believe and teach is of lower value than bat-squeeze (hey! WWI started in large part because of a British blockade of Ecuadorean guano — there's ought to be said for bat-squeeze.)

Or put on Webster Griffin Tarpley for over two hours straight, and let him paint a Sistine Ceiling far more harrowing than Michelangelo's Last Judgment, list the treasons of the bankers from Grover Cleveland's abject submission to JP Morgan, the sinking of the Maine, the murder of McKinley, Morgan telling Wilson "Time to enter WWI", the attempted overthrow of FDR, the murder of JFK, the fraud of Tonkin, the outrage of Iran Contra, CIA gun-running and drug-running: "IT'S THEM. IT'S THAT CONTINUITY. THAT'S WHAT YOU SAW ACTING ON 9-11, NOT A BUNCH OF PEOPLE IN THE CAVE."

That's something one doesn't put on nice radio.

That will get you fired.

No argument from me

I can't see Werbe grabbing hold of the 220 V terminals. Even Palast, while indirectly acknowledging Alex Jones as a rare resource in a world of spin, he has not seen fit to offer himself as a 50 amp fuse for 9-11 Truth or name, in so many words, the deepest, most long-term (centuries?) dissimulation of which governments consist.

It occurred to me lately, while listening to Randi, that — a real epiphany for me — there are really only two types of people:

1. The many, who think, "Eh, basically, I mean . . . right — not 100%, you know, but in general, America is what it claims to be. Sure there are dark spots, but, at the root, over the course of a lifetime, the government is levelling with the people."
2. The few who no longer wait for Godot.

The shows on AirAmerica that I really enjoy keeps going poof! When I first logged onto the site, and tuned into AirAmerica, your show Mike Malloy, was certainly one that made me keep revisiting. It was such a relief to hear your heartfelt rants, and when you played the sound clips of blowhards and monkey boy while commenting on it, I loved the way you sliced their lies apart relentlessly. When I hear chuckle nuts speak, I always feel fury due to the obvious lies and skews he pushes, and the only thing that could calm me down was hearing you rip his words apart. But now I suddenly can't tune in to hear you clear the table.

I also enjoyed listening to Marc Maron and Mark Riley when at work, but when they chopped Maron away, Riley sounds like he is missing his buddy. They were dynamite together! Also then I was really wondering what the heck was going on. There are still some good names left, but I can't help the feeling that the network is blending out, becoming dull as those who dared to kick butt goes poof one after another. You are being missed Mike, if that is any consolation at all.

Hi Mike and Kathy!How funny

Hi Mike and Kathy!

How funny it is hearing from you HERE. I think it is a gas.

You know the pod people were sent from Mars to get you off the air during the election season. They will not settle your cash accounts until after the elections are over. They are putting the squeeze on you to block you from accepting any new contracts... You see if you go on the air ANYWHERE ELSE then they will claim YOU JUMPED SHIP and THEY DON'T HAVE TO PAY YOUR SEVERANCE.

You need a lawyer from the ACLU in New York City to represent your cause, stating your First Amendment Rights are being taken away by this dastardly method.

You KNOW THIS IS A ROVE TACTIC. This is how they operate.

Get a lawyer Mike..... and Kathy too..... You need the money!!!!

The story itself will be really a blast when The Malloy Show returns.... don't sign any non disclosure agreement in order to be paid... you don't need it. You can guest on shows or call in! We are listening out here at all our places we know.

There is a boomerang effect to their plan. If you are NOT on the air to entertain your listeners, then they will have to go out on the streets to find out what is going on won't they? Oh my gosh, they might even become activists instead of listeners!!!

They might stand in front of their own county elections offices with signs asking for a FAIR COUNT.... or something... ready to party when the counting is over and we win!!!

AAR's stupid decisions

Wow, it sure is great to hear from you Mike. I used to stream you every day. It has been awfully quiet without your show.

I remember watching the very good documentary on AAR. It was clear from the documentary that AAR was really onto something.

Then they started fucking around.

It was almost immediately afterwards that they got rid of "unfiltered" which I really enjoyed. Then they broke up Marc Maron/ Mark Riley's very good morning sediton. Then they made noises about Sam. Now they fire you.

I feel like Michael Corleone when he thought Fredo betrayed him in Godfather II.

"AAR, you're nothing to me now. You're not a brother, you're not a friend. I don't want to know you or what you do. I don't want to see you on the web, I don't want you near my soundcard. When you send one of your pod-people executives on C-SPAN, I want to know a day in advance, so I won't be there. You understand?"

Of course AAR could fix this by firing the execs, giving you a contract worth double the money you were making, and putting you in Jerry Springer's timeslot.

Then we will embrace except I won't blow AAR away while fishing and saying "Hail Mary's"

But I really enjoyed your show every single night. You are the only one who could keep me up this late. It's 12:30 right now and I'd be in bed (since you're not on the air) but I went to your website before bed to see if you had posted anything new. You had and that was nice to see. Then I checked in at your message board cuz there's always good stuff there and I see that you are over here posting away!! Gotta love these AAR stumblebums!

Good night, and good luck! Hope to hear you again very soon.

Well, hi there, Mike and Kathy. Good to see you here. Somehow I'm not surprised that AAR can't seem to run its own website.

When I was on chemotherapy a couple months ago and too weak to do much of anything, Mike, I felt like you were screaming on my behalf. Ever since you've been fired, I feel like I'm screaming on yours. I gripe on a daily basis to my husband about how much I miss your commentary. "How in the h*ll am I supposed to tolerate *this* crap with no Mike Malloy Show?"

Anyway, we miss you horribly in Ypsilanti, Michigan--but we have no doubt that you'll be back. Hang in there, all three of you, and keep in touch.

Batsqueeze

Hi Mike and Kathy. Damn I wish you guys were on the on the air. The good news is, however, that when you come back, it will be on a radio network that not only espouses liberal values, but practices them as well.

Top ten list: What would we want Mike to talk about if he were on tonight, as he should be...

10. Dubya called David Gregory "gorgeous" in the Rose garden the other day, and how this relates to the Guckert Gannon scandal.

9. The Pope's carefully chosen words and how they reflect his infinite wisdom, Bat squeeze! He still has a little of Hitler's youth in him apparently.

8. The fall of gas prices and how the Bush crime family orchestrated such to help the GOP in November.

7. How the AAR execs had these giant leafy green pods growing around their offices a few weeks before they fired Mike.

6. How the Taliban's resurgence in Afghanistan is directly related to the Cut and Run policy that led to the Iraq Invasion, e.g. we cut and ran from Afghanistan to Iraq.
5. Why the ex governor of New Jersey, a democrat, who was forced to resign due to a gay scandal has been scheduled to appear on Oprah just in time for the elections. Just goes to show being in the closet is bad for everyone... And gay issues should not be exploited for political purposes!
4. How Mike has about 16K signatures on his petition. Multiply that number by twenty and you have his nightly listenership.
3. What was that Raul Castro said at the UN?
2. The president's complex analysis of the Constitutional issues surrounding his wire tap policy, and I quote, " If someone is callin' Al Qaeda, I want to know about it!" Great George.
1. Have I mentioned yet tonight how stupid the AAR execs are?

Mike, I listened to your show EVERY night when it was on WLIB 1190. I was fortunate to have XM radio and listened when the airheads put on the Satellite Sisters on 1190 in your place. I was thrilled to see you, Kathy and Molly when you came to NYC in April 2005. I am disgusted AAR took you off. I have called numerous times expressing my outrage. See what happens when you win a NYC radio award for best show. I am still hopeful the brainiacs who control AAR will reconsider and put you back on. It seems there is, as of today, no word on the host of the 10 pm time slot. It is amazing that a company would alienate thousands of customers by taking you off the network. I have seen the petition with over 15,000 names of loyal listeners who want you reinstated. If you wind up somewhere else I will definitely tune in. I never heard of the Mike Malloy show until it appeared one summer night in 2004. I was hooked ever since. Good luck and watch your back. The Bush Crime Family is still up to their evil ways.

Mike, can we have a podcast? Pretty please? It's easy to do.

Listening to Werbe and crossing my fingers.

Party on, all 4,754+64 truthseekers!

Old Mary in Denver here.
